LINC, Inc. Believes in Second Chances!

A Wilmington NC nonprofit offering supportive programs and case management for justice-involved individuals

LINC
LEADING INTO NEW COMMUNITIES

Our Mission

LINC, Inc.'s mission is to educate and motivate youth to make positive life choices and to empower men and women returning from incarceration to be productive members of our community.

M.E. Roberts Transitional Living Campus and STAR Center

MER: Vince Burgess at (910) 332-1148 | vburgess@lincnc.org
STAR: Catrecia McCoy-Bowman at (910) 408-3301 | cmccoy@lincnc.org

The transitional living programs at the Marvin E. Roberts (M.E.R.) Transitional Living Campus and the STAR Center in Wilmington NC provide transitional housing for individuals returning from incarceration, intensive case management, job training, support for educational attainment, substance abuse treatment, and health and medical services in a wholistic therapeutic environment.

New Hanover County Local Reentry Council

Linda Thomas at (910) 889-1140 (910) 332-1138 | lthomas@lincnc.org

The LRCs are an integrated network uniting various entities to facilitate the successful reintegration of current and former justice-involved individuals at the local level. By leveraging existing program services, LRC case managers endeavor to reduce recidivism rates by providing essential support such as housing, transportation, and educational assistance.

Permanent Supportive Housing

Samala Smith at (910) 390-2812 | ssmith@lincnc.org

The Permanent Supportive Housing program at LINC, Inc. places clients in affordable housing that is combined with support services to address the needs of individuals with justice-involvement, substance use disorder, and/or mental health challenges.

Employment Bootcamp and Cognitive Behavioral Interventions

Dwight Hale (419) 297-6294 | dhale@lincnc.org

Programs designed to assist justice-involved and formerly incarcerated individuals in developing the mindset and real-life skills needed to secure employment. Flexible group or one-on-one sessions focus on providing guidance. The Cognitive Behavioral Interventions program at LINC, Inc. offers a variety of group sessions to empower justice-involved individuals in making healthy decisions for positive return from incarceration, social interaction, employment potential, and long-term sustained success in reentry.

NC FIT (North Carolina Formerly Incarcerated Program) | NC FIT Wellness

Demond Wells at (910) 390-2909 | dwells@lincnc.org

A partner in the North Carolina Formerly Incarcerated Transition (NC FIT) Program, sponsored by UNC Family Medicine. The program is staffed by community health workers who work on a case-by-case basis to connect justice-involved individuals and formerly incarcerated citizens with primary healthcare providers. The community health workers in the NC FIT and NC Wellness programs maintain resources for the treatment of chronic disease, mental illness and/or substance use disorder.

You have the power to live a life that is not determined by your worst mistake, but by the positive changes you make.
Contact LINC directly, or ask your case worker or parole officer to assist you.
